Dear Mr. Russell:

I have just received your letter notifying me that you are unable to take any classes during this term, and that you are about to leave as soon as you can make arrangements to do so. As your arrangement was an entirely private one with Mr. Wrong this notification may be taken as sufficient.

I have been assured, however, by members of the staff that you have done valuable work during the term, when you gave private assistance to the History Department.

I hope that you will find that your sojourn in Canada will not prove to have been without its value to you.

Yours sincerely,

President.

~~Dear Mr President~~

Dear Mr President
I have just received a cable
from Mr. Herbert Fisher strongly urging my return, and have also received news of certain family matters
which make it advisable that I should get back to England as soon as possible. I should therefore be unable to take any classes this new term, as I shall be leaving

as soon as I have completed my arrangements.

I trust that I have given satisfaction during the term I have been a member of the staff of your History Department

Yours sincerely
A. C. Russell
